

EUISSCA Supply Chain Sustainability Conference
September 27th-28th, 2017, Phoenix, AZ
Agenda

SEPTEMBER 27 TH	SESSION DETAIL
4:30–6:30	Registration, Supplier Showcase and Welcome Reception Pick up your badge and additional conference information and visit our Showcase Display suppliers while networking and enjoying light appetizers and beverages. Salt River Project will officially welcome members and suppliers to Arizona at the reception.
SEPTEMBER 28 TH
7:30–8:30	Continental Breakfast and Registration
8:30–8:45	Welcome Tony Tomczak, EUISSCA Chair, DTE Energy, Executive Director Corporate Services and CPO and Ann Becker, APS, VP Chief Procurement Officers
8:45–9:15	Realizing Results – Keynote Speaker George Basile, Senior Sustainability Scientist, Julie Ann Wrigley Global Institute of Sustainability – Arizona State University; Professor of Practice, School of Sustainability; and Chair, Master of Sustainability Solutions Curriculum Committee, School of Sustainability
9:15 – 9:45	Realizing Results Panel Discussion A panel discussion featuring George Basile, Michael Haggerty, Vice President of Supply Chain and a supplier will discuss, in a talk show format, moderated by Chris Peterson, Executive Director on the results ConEd has realized working with the supplier. Basile will focus on specific sustainability stories from companies he has worked with.
9:45-10:30	Break, Networking, Supplier Showcase
10:30-11:15	State of the Alliance and the 2020 Plan A summary overview of the Alliance’s activities, performance, and value since the 2016 Supply Chain Sustainability Conference as well as a look at our 2020 plan.
11:15-12:00	Member Panel – Members Realizing Results Mike Atwater, Entergy, Seth Blumen, Salt River Project and Todd Richter, Ameren Will share how their utility is realizing results through implementing practices from the Alliance. Includes a discussion of success factors, future directions, challenges and opportunities.
12:00-12:15	2017 EUISSCA Member Award
12:15 – 1:15	Lunch and Networking

EUISSCA Supply Chain Sustainability Conference
September 27th-28th, 2017, Phoenix, AZ
Agenda

1:15 – 2:00	Voluntary Standard Release: Construction Services Russ Wilkenloh, Duke Energy, Erwin Wen, Southern California Edison and Anthony Gloria, Arizona Public Service will share insights from the latest Alliance Voluntary Standard.
2:00-2:30	Break and Networking
2:30 – 3:30	Supplier Perspective: Suppliers Realizing Results We will hear how Intren, Eaton, and ABB are recognizing the benefits of sustainability within their organizations.
3:30 – 4:15	2016/17 Annual Alliance Survey Results Every year the Alliance completes a comprehensive survey of the sustainability performance of the members' key suppliers. Tiffany Rodriguez, Pacific Gas & Electric will highlight the key trends from the past year's survey and share examples of how Alliance members are utilizing results within their supply chain practices.
4:15– 4:30	Closing Session A look ahead to what is next for the Alliance and its members with Alliance Chair Tony Tomczak, DTE.
4:30 – 6:00	Closing Networking Reception Alliance members will each be showcasing highlights from their sustainable supply chain activities as well as networking, light appetizers and beverages.